LOUIS LLE JOURNAL PRENTICE, HA VERSON, & OSBORNE. JOURNAL VICE BUILDING, Green street, bet on Third and Fourth.

WINTER .- During the past week, we have had severe indications of the presence of winter, and a general indication to "slide" seemed to possess all foot passengers, and it was with difficulty that the inclination was resisted. The feet evinced an almost irresistible desire to assume an equally elevated position with the head, or bring that down to their own level, and everybody walked as if they feared breaking through, or waking somebody up.

While the thin, emaciated form of poverty crawled slowly along with head bent down, and arms felded across the breast, and vainly endeavoring to protect itself from the keen edge of the winter blast, without a sound, unless a sigh that struggled through closed teeth, those who enjoyed a greater share of fortune's smiles went gaily along luxuriating in the prospect of skating, sleighrides, and other winter amusements.

Many a fair face pressed the pillow last night upon which it rested in the ease and luxury of comfort, anxious to close its eyes in forgetfulness of reality to dream of the pleasures granted them who can afford their enjoyment, by the gay festivities of the winter months, while others, whose lives have been less favored, throw themselves upon pallets of straw in their cheerless homes and await anxiously the appearance of morning to commence another day, which shall end as this, in suffering and

A portion of the male population, those who can afford it, will commence imbibing that delectable compound called "Tom and Jerry," while by far the largest number will, from necessity, confine themselves to a cheaper and less palatable beverage to assist in expel ing all strong twinges of cold that may creep into the system while engaged in the daily duties of out door life. Whatever may be the pleasures vouchsafed to the fortunate in the gaieties of winter frolics, do not let them blot out from memory the fact that suffering exists, and that many needy ones are slowly dragging out the weary months of this season with nothing to cheer their sorrow, or a hope in future joys on earth. War has dragged from many homes the prosing arm of the husband and father, and is absence, without the cold blast of winter winds, has left a chilling void that can only be filled by the exercise of philanthropy by those who have the power. Snow Storm .- A heavy snow storm has been laging in North Missouri for several days. The show is over six inches deep on a level, and all trains have either been delayed or have been unable to run. No passenger trains left either St. Joseph or Hannibal on Thursday. The morning train from St. Louis on the North Missouri Railroad had considerable difficulty in reaching Macon City.

The snow in the cuts on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad is said to be from ten to falling the road will be impassable for days. But the company are making great efforts to clear the way. A large number of passengers are lying over at Macon City.

Nearly all the stockyards on the line of the State railroads are filled with cattle and hogs, and they will suffer greatly during the con tinuance of this weather.

While thus bespeaking your best wishes for those veterans, we turn with a sigh to a sadder theme, though through it there gleams a ray of joy. Our brave Major is lost to us forever. We must quarrel with Gov. A DETROIT CHESS-PLAYER.—Francis Henry Elder, Esq., a son of Adam Elder, Esq., o Detroit, has recently been creating considerable sensation among the chess-clubs and chessamateurs of the East. He has played with the best Eastern players, and been uniformly successful. At Boston he played 25 games in all, with the most noted chess-players of that city, and won 20 out of the 25. He also played eight games simultaneously, blindfolded, and won half of them. At New York he played 20 games, winning 18 of the numberbeating those players who formerly contested with Morphy and Paulsen. Thus far, Mr. Elder has shown himself the best player in the Northern States, although he is but 22

ELKTON, TODD Co., KY., Dec. 17. To the Editors of the Louisville Journal: I with many other loyal friends don't feel satisfied and well pleased with the present state of things in our county and the adjoining counties on the southern border of our old patriotic State. You will doubtless recollect that in 1861, on the breaking out of the rebellion, the rebels established recruiting camps all along our border just over the line in Ten-nessee, Camp Boone, Camp Trousdale, &c. This impudence drew off from our counties very many young men of our State, many of the Adjutant General of Kentucky is herely to take immediate steps to procure, and fi very many young men of our State, many of them unwary and inexperienced, who have fallen victims to their folly, and many who survive sorely repent their folly. We then had and yet have many of the most loyal citizens in our counties that belong to our State who suffered bothin person and property, and many of us had to leave or hide from the relentless hand of persecution while the demons in human form overrun our border country. Then when the United States Government called for help, the most of our sons and neighbors of the loyalty responded heartily to the call, with an eye to the protection of their Government, homes, and families, many of whom now sleep on the forsaken waste of the bloody battle-fields. And er. ble the Southern Bank of Kentucky to wind saken waste of the bloody battle-fields. credit, and released from the draft, while I see we have to foot the bill of 191 men in our small but patriotic county. There is a wrong somewhere about the matter, and we won't stop here to look for the wrong; but this is not the last nor worst we have to submit to. We have been loyal, and contributed by our blood and treasure to the support of one of the 'assed.

It is to be done by adversing. THE MORNING STAR,-Venus is now the morning star, and presents a grand sight in the southern heavens, where her crescent form, about as large as a saucer and as bright as the moon, comparatively, can be seen at 4 A. M. Saturn accompanies Venus, but looks like the red light of a lamp beside that of Venus, which is nebulous and very brilliant, The sight will well repay any one for an early look out of doors on a clear, frosty morning.

Cars are an improvement in this country on the army wagon, but at this time they would not compare favorably with an irish coach, either in point of speed or comfort.

A car on this road resembles a discarded canal packet, after mischievous boys have pelted the windows with stones and the sides with mud balls. If you have ever seen a sitting room of a hotel at a State Capital on a rainy day, during the organization of the Legislature, flowing with a mixture of to-bacco juice and mud, you have only to recall the spectacle, and you have a type of railway cars on the Nashville and Chattanooga road.

As some censure may be cast upon this act as a desecration of the Sabbath, we would state that the locomotives and cars now being brought over the river are for the Chattanooga road, and the necessities of the Government demand that no time should be lost in carrying them to their destination. Hence the act directed zeal of Southern women will have heaped upon their character a load of obloquy, to which a thousand reeking hecatombs will

Mr. Memminger's report of the condition of the rebel finances is a document even more dolorous than Davis's message, if we may judge from the extracts furnished us. He frankly confesses that unless a remedy be found for the financial distress, unless the currency be reduced, the army can neither be paid, clothed, nor fed, arms and munitions of war can no longer be supplied, the officers of the government cannot be supported, and the country must succumb. He evidently believes what Mr. Wm. Gregg told him lately that the simple and naked truth is that the government has no credit." For weeks and months the Southern journals have been seeking for some mode of relief of the treasury, but in vain. The case is desperate.

Loss of Coalboats.—We learn that a large number of coalboats have been lost during the present rise. Between this city and Pittsburg sunken boats mark all the shoal places in the river. On Thursday night the river was full of coalboats and a heavy fog prevailed. It is probable that many more boats will be lost. The demand for pilots was very great among the coal men when the present rise came. Being anxious to get their coal out, the services of any man who pretended to be a pilot were readily accepted, and the consequence was that many coalboats were placed in incompetent hands.

moralization socially, that war has effected in military men, the proprieties of society, en-livened by the presence of women, are not totally disregarded even on the theatre of war. That man is most fortunate, who, on this road, procures a seat in a car where a lady happens to be a passenger. If his fellow passengers are modestly favored with brains, and a proper appreciation of those civilities toward women that bespeak the gentleman, he may men that bespeak the gentleman, he may reasonably hope to escape suffocation by to-bacco fumes. I noticed one man during my trip, who, though repeatedly requested to desist from the use of a filthy pipe, smoked only the more, and seemingly enjoyed his vulgarity. The cars leave Nashville now at 4 o'clock, and arrive in Murfreesboro' in time for breakfast. If hunger annoys on the way, you may happened its gnawings by purchesing rise of

ast. If nunger annoys on the way, you may appease its gnawings by purchasing pies of venders at the stations. Pumpkin is the favorite among the pie-boys and negresses who engage in the business. The crust is about as tough and about as digestible as sole leather, and this characteristic has given them the appellation "sole leather pies." "Dried apple vias" are shundart also tious. In fact, you may as a general thing do so, but the table groans under a very mod-an unpleasant reminder to the nervous travel-ler that eternity is not an improbable termi-nation of the trip, and not many feet distant. The rocky heights are reached, the heavy rumbling pusher quits us gracefully, and we enter the long, dark, dreary, damp, and repulsive tunnel. The train descends the mountain amid scenes of destruction similar to those witnessed in the ascent. Here a ruined ocomotive, there a car and another locomo-ive, another further on, and now comes a rain of shivered cars. The valley is reached,

The valley is reached, and through a country that the ploughshare of the enterprising husbandman might have made the garden of-agriculture, we labor like a wearied footman among untilled fields, that bear upon their surface in the rotted forests an emplem of their own crying barrenness. GEO. D. PRENTICE, Editors.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1863.

The four Kentucky members who aided in the Republican organization of the House of Representatives have already begun to find that they are in dangerous and suspicious company. Oil and vinegar are as unlikely to mix as are the sentiments of Kentuckians to assimilate with the crude theories and mad antics of the dominant party in Congress. Messrs. Lucien Anderson, Brutus J. Clay, William H. Randall, and G. Clay Smith will, many and many a time, have cause to regret the steps they have taken toward the betrayal of their State into the hands of its enemies, and this regret will spring from the very discomforts of their association with the radicals. to say nothing of the degradation they must feel for having violated pledges of the most solemn character which man can give to man. The House no sooner was engaged in business than the incongruity of the position of these members was apparent. Thus on a vote on the following resolutions, offered by Mr. Holman, Mr. Anderson, with his recent guerilla and bushwhacking experiences, dodged; Clay and Randall voted directly to lay them on the table, which is equivalent to their defeat, while Gen. Smith voted against the motion of Thad. Stevens to bury them in that legislative tomb-the table of the House-from whence there is no resurrection except by a two-third vote:

Resolved, That the doctrine recently announced that the States in which an armed in-surrection has existed against the Federal Government have ceased to be States of the Union, and shall be held, in the ultimate defeat of that insurrection, as territories or sub-jugated provinces, and governed as such by the absolute will of Congress and the Federal Executive, or restored to the Union on condi-tions unknown to the Constitution of the United States, ought to be rebutted and con-demned as manifestly unjust to the loyal citi-zens of slave States, tending to prolong the war and confirm the treasonable theory of se-cessionism, and, if carried into effect, must greatly endanger the public liberty and con-stitutional powers and rights of all the States by centralizing and consolidating the powers of the Government, State and national, in the

Resolved, That the only object of the war ought to be to subjugate the armed insurrection which, for the time being, suspends the proper relations of certain States with the Federal Government, and to re-establish the supremacy of the Constitution; and the loyal citizens of those States, and the masses of the people thereof, submitting to the authority of the Constitution, ought not to be hindered from restoring the proper relations of their respective States with the Federal Government, so far as the same is dependent on the voluntary act of the people, by any condition, except unconditional submission to the Conatitution and laws of the United States. In the language heretofore solemnly adopted by Congress, the war ought not to be waged or our part for any purpose of conquest or subugation or purpose of overthrowing or inter-ering with the rights or established institu-ions of those States, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality, and rights of the several States unimpaired, and as soon as those objects are accomplished the way whether these objects are accomplished the several states. complished the war ought to cease.

Resolved, That all necessary and proper appropriations of money ought to be promptly made by this Congress for the support of the military and naval forces of the Government, and tary and naval forces of the Government, and all measures of legislation necessary to increase and promote the efficiency of the army and navy and to maintain the public credit, ought to be adopted, that, through a vigorous projecution of the war, peace on the basis of the Union of the States and the supremacy of the constitution may be the more speedily obtained. It is impossible to believe that any representative of Kentucky can find any apology in his own conscience for impeding the pasof resolutions which are the reiteration of the language of the lamented Crittenden, with the addition of pledges to vote all proper appropriations of money, and to adopt all measures of legislation necessary for a vigorous prosecution of the war, that "peace, on the basis of the Union of the States and the supremacy of the constitution, may be the more readily obtained." And yet such is the lamentable fact as regards even the successor of Mr. Crittenden.

It appears from the report of the Secretary of the Treasury that the receipts from internal revenue have not equalled expectations, though the general condition of the national finances is represented as extremely prosperous. The estimated receipts for the year 1864-'5 are two hundred and twentythree millions, which sum is twenty-one millions less than the estimates made last winter for the current year. The recommendations of Mr. Chase, as to the ways and means for meeting the increased expenses of the nation, consist of a monthly tax of one-fifth per cent on bank circulation, instead of the present one per cent annual tax; an increased tax on deposits from one-fourth to twelve-twentyfifths per cent; an increase of the excise on distilled spirits, making it sixty cents per gallon; twenty cents a pound on leaf tobacco, and five to twelve on manufactured; ten cents on petroleum in its crude state, and two cents a pound on cotton—the last article, however, not being available until after the rebellion shall have been crushed and the Southern D. P. FAULDS'S. planters have regained their former pros-

Our national debt at the close of the present fiscal year will be about $1,687,000,000, and Piano the interest which it now bears is about $55,000,000, while for the next fiscal year it is estimated at $85,000,000. This enormous outlay can be easily met by a patriotic determination to employ all the energies and resources of the country to the payment of interest while the war continues, and the gradual absorption of the principal when it closes. Before the close of the present century the entire war debt can be extinguished, if we practise proper economy in our peace establishment and cheerfully resolve to continue the imposition of taxation. When we reflect that the proposed duty of two cents a pound on cotton will yield over thirty millions of annual revenue, we can easily suggest plans for the establishment of a sinking fund, which will gradually, silently, and without pressure upon individuals or classes, pay off all our indebtedness. When an Englishman would employ a comparison for some chimerical idea of finance, he refers to the payment of the national debt of Great Britain, which is regarded as a stupendous impossibility, because the current expenses of the government are also on such an enormous scale that her indebtedness defies reduction, but is constantly increasing. In the United States, on the contrary, the recuperative energy of our institutions, the wise distribution of the burdens of taxation, and the almost cheerful alacrity with which they are assumed, carry the most convincing evidences that we have the ability, as well as the determination, to pay to the uttermost dollar all the immense indebtedness which must be incurred in suppressing the rebellion. Nay, we can even do more, we can help our "erring Lexington and Frankfort Railroad. sisters" of the Confederacy in their efforts to redeem their credit and prevent them from incurring the odium of repudiation. When pos they have determined to "go and sin no more," we cannot, it is true, cause riches to rise, Phoenix-like, from the ashes of their burned cotton, but we can give them a friendly endorsement, take them fraternally by the hand, and lead them back tenderly to the old routine of reciprocal duties and trade, and thus the knotty problem of the Confederate debt will soon be solved by the innate sense of honor which will impel them to labor long and assiduously to restore their financial standing by wiping out the entire indebtedness which in their madness they contracted.

Persons t dentary habits troubled with weakness lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required. They purify, strengthen, and invigorate.

They create a healthy appetite.

They are an antidote to change of water and diet. They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours. They strengthen the system and enliven the mind. They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.

They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach. They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They curl Diarrhea, Cholera, and Cholera Morbus. They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headach They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, winter green, sassafras, roots, and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle. Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. Se

S. Stamp ever the cork, with plantation scene, and our firm signature on a fine steel plate engraving on side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. We defy any person to natch the taste or character of our goods. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk is an impostor. We sell only in our log cabin bottle. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on two parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is perfectly incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. The are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats, and country stores.

The Best Artificial Help for Hu man Sight ever Invented. E. SINCERE, PRACTICAL OPTICIAN, SPHEROIDAL SPECTACLES,

THE HOLIDAYS ARE NEARLY UPON US, AND, in accordance with the universal custom, it is necessary for us to make our friends and relatives a gift, in order that we may not be censidered close-fisted or illiberal. One is puzzled sometimes to know what would be the most appropriate present we could make. We would suggest the following: A nice fine pair of French kid Salmoral boots for wife, mother, or sister, or a nice article of kid, morocco, or goat boots for; little daught-r or nicee, or a fine pair of calf or patent leather boots for son or nephew. We have, besides these, a large assortment of all styles of work, such as Gents' fine Slippers, embroidered and leather; Ladies' fine Slippers, embroidered and leather; Boys', Youths', and Children's fine Boots, Shoes, and Gaiters;

ITEMS.—Two saloon-keepers were arrested in the upper part of the city yesterday for selling liquor to soldiers. They pleaded in extenuation that they were innocent of the law on the subject. They were severely reprimanded, and discharged.

Five teamsters were arrested yesterday for fast driving, and confined in the Military

Wm. Hastings was arrested as a deserter

John Rapshire was forwarded to Cairo yesterday in irons. He is a deserter from one o the gunboats, and has escaped several times from officers having him in charge. J. P. Francis, supposed to have escaped from Fort Warren, was arrested yesterday. Mr. T. Chandler, a merchant of Campbellsville, was mistaken for one of Morgan's menyesterday, and placed under arrest. After an investigation, he was discharged. Our friends from the rural districts must be careful how they look when they visit the city.

Eleven deserters were sent to Cairo yesterday, ten to Lexington, fourteen to Nashville, and nine to Washington. One hundred and sixty-three convalescents were transferred to their regiments yesterday.

The locomotive attached to the evening train on the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad was thrown from the track, last evening, near the depot, just as the train was departing, causing considerable detention.

In consequence of the extreme cold weather during the past week, work was suspended on the crossings in different parts of the city. Some of them are in a very bad condition, and almost impassable. Now that the weather has moderated, we hope the authorities will have this attended to.

We are happy to announce that active preparations are being made by the ladies for a grand Christmas dinner to the soldiers of this

The "Continental Old Folks" appeared last night at Masonic Temple to a large and respectable audience. Their performance commetely delighted all who were present. They are eminently worthy of the great name they have attained. Mrs. General Grant arrived in the city yesterde, and leaves this morning for Nashville on join her husband at that place. The ladies' Fair was crowded last night, and the articles sold at "fair" prices. We learn that a man whose name is unknown fell from a plank leading to the new steamboat now being completed at the foot of Fifth street, on Sunday night, and was drowned. His body has not been recovered.

Christopher Suerkruep fell from the roof of a corn mill on the corner of Campbell and Market streets, on Wednesday last, and died from the effect of his injuries on Saturday. The masonry-work on the piers of the Cincinnati and Covington bridge has been suspended for the winter, but will be resumed early in the spring, and entirely completed during the coming year, so that during the spring of 1865 the superstructure will be raised, and the bridge fully completed. The quota of the Sixth (Covington) District is not so large as was at first supposed. The publication made about five weeks ago by the Adjutant-General of Kentucky, which called for 3,045 men from the Sixth District, and which made Kenton county's quota 1,005, referred only to State affairs, and had nothing whatever to do with the national enrolment. The Board of Enrolment of the Sixth District adjourned on Saturday. The number of persons examined for exemption was about two thousand, and the number exempted three hundred and fifty. It is understood that any person entitled to exemption, who failed to present himself for examination during the late session of the Board, will have an opportunity of asserting his claim at any time within ten days after the draft takes place.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.-M'lle Marie Zoe, who made her first appearance last night in the French Spy, is a splendid pantomimist, an excellent mistress of fencing, and graceful in all her movements. This evening, she appears in the Wizard Skiff, which affords ample scope for the display of her varied talent. She is assisted by Mr. Ben Yates and Mr. Lay, the latter gentleman doing the combats with her with great effect. Zoe will prove an excellent holiday attraction.

Woop's THEATRE.—The talented and wonderful actress, Matilda Heron, repeats her great drama of Edith this evening. We speak of it in strong terms upon the evidence of all contemporary criticism, as other avocations prevented us from seeing it last night. We shall not omit the gratification, if possible, on this second occasion, and we advise her many admirers to share the pleasure with us.

The military authorities at Washington City require all Government teams to keep to the right side of the street, and between every teams to leave a space equal to the width of the street. Some such regulation here would be a great public convenience. It might be extended also to detachments of horses when taken down the river to water. for we have waited a tedious time to allow a long line of them to pass a street crossing.

The Naiad Queen is the Christmas piece which has been so long in preparation at the Louisville Theatre. There has everything been done in the way of new scenery, gorgeous dresses, and appointments to command success. It is a fine scenic piece, and the efforts of the management to put it upon the stage acceptably will, of course, be accepted at the approaching holiday season.

GOOD TOBACCO SALES .- Phelps, Caldwell, & Co., of the Louisville warehouse, sold, yesterday, a hogshead of new tobacco for Lindsey Kinkead, of Christian county, for $37 per hundred, J. T. Evans was the purchaser; five hogsheads old tobacco for John Roberts, of Montgomery county, Tenn., at an average of $21 55; two hhds old tobacco for Wash Johnston, of Christian, at $23 50@26 50.

ABRIVAL OF COAL .- Two hundred and twenty thousand bushels of coal arrived at this city yesterday, and 165,000 bushels passed this place for points below. A number of barges are on their way down, and it is expected that large quantities will arrive during the present week. It is generally believed that the prices will be greatly reduced.

ANOTHER ESCAPE OF PRISONERS.—Two pris oners, Noland and Brady, confined at Barracks No. 1, made their escape on Sunday night by cutting a hole through the floor of the room to the cellar, after which they found no difficulty in passing out. Noland was captured yesterday, and returned to his quarters.

We did not learn the charges against them. To Housekeepers .- We are requested by the butchers to say there will be no market on Friday or Saturday, but the markets will be kept open all day Thursday. Housekeepers will therefore do well to provide themselves with sufficient on Thursday to do until Mona solution of pure Iodine in pure water. It acts upon the HEART, LIVER, KIDNEYS, DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and GLANDULAR SYSTEM. The unparalleled success in private practice, and the endorsement of high authority, enables us to recommen odine Water for the cure of Scrofula in all forms, Consumption, Cancer, Bronchitis, Heart, Liver, and Kidney Diseases, Rheuma-tism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Female Weaknesses, Dyspepsia, Syphilis, Mercurial As a TONIC, its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and ex-citing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and Debility an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employ-ment of Iodine Water. The patient recovers flesh, strength, and color; hitherto pale, re-laxed, and feeble, he becomes full, strong, and Iodine Water is put up with full directions around each bottle, that it may be used as a family medicine as well as by the practitioner. Physicians may rely upon the uniform strength of this solution, as containing 34 grains of Iodine in each fluid ounce, no solvent being used. It is not liable to decomposition and the solution of the soluti sition, nor spontaneously-formed inequalities; neither is the Iodine neutralized by combina-tion with any ingredient, rendering this solution superior to any other method in which he can exhibit lodine.

George Storrs.—IODINE WATER.—In this number of our Magazine we introduce to the atten-tion of our readers this medical preparation. We have done so, not for pay, nor because our pages are used as a medium of advertisement—for we have uniformly declined them—but gratitude to God, and a sense of obligation to Dr. Anders & Co., has made us insert e following: My only son, George F. Storrs, now 37 years old, has been afflicted for some dozen years, more or less, with painful swellings and inflammations in various parts of his body; oftentimes, seemingly, he was near to death; then a respite for a season, but only for a return of the disease with more violence. For the past three years he has had an open sore on his breast, and latterly one near his collar bone, with ulceration in his throat, that was rapidly increasing, so that dissolution appearded inevitable. In this condition he applied to Dr. Anders & Co. By the use of the Iodine Water the ulceration in his throat disappeared in a short time. Continuing its use, in less than two months he was apparently healed, and his general health much improved. This son, whom I had feared would fall asleep in death before this summer should close, is now, apparently, in a fair way to recover as perfect health as is common to our mortal state. In gratitude to God, who has thus answered

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

MORNING DESPATORES. (Special Despatch to the Louisville Journal ) WALKER'S FORD, Dec. 21. I see it quoted from the Richmond papers that Gen. Wilcox's advance brigade was reported by the rebels near Maynardsville about December 1st. This is false. Gen. Wilcox sent a brigade of cavalry, under Col. Graham, of Col. Foster's division, with the view to harrass the enemy's left and rear and draw off as large a force as possible from the neighborhood of Knoxville. Graham scouted to Blain's Cross Roads, and the whole of Wheeler's cavalry corps and Jones's brigade advanced, expecting to gobble up Col. Graham. The Colonel skirmished one day, falling back to Maynardsville. That night he withdrew to Clinch Mountains, within three miles of Walker's Ford.

An engagement ensued the next morning. Dec. 2d. The enemy was drawn down upon two regiments of infantry supports, under Col. Jackson, of the 110th Indiana, and two sections of artillery, under Capt. Patterson, of the 21st Ohio battery, and the rebels were handsomely repulsed and driven back a mile and a half before dark. They retreated again behind Clinch Mountain at 9 o'clock, and, by daylight next morning, were in full retreat toward Knoxville, losing some 75 in killed and wounded and about 100 prisoners. Our own loss in killed, wounded, and missing did not exceed 60. So far, Wilcox's troops have proved able to take care of themselves, and all reports of their being cut off and meeting with losses are false.

XXXVIIITH CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION. = WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. SENATE.

Mr. Dixon introduced various petitions praying for the amendment of the enrolment act, so that ministers of the gospel may be regarded as non-combatants and exempted from the service except as chaplains. Mr. Bryan presented a petition of the citizens of Iowa, praying for the total abolition of slavery.

Mr. Wilson gave notice of a bill to make it illegal for any member of Congress to act as counsel in any case in which the United States Mr. Morgan submitted a joint resolution calling on the Secretary of War for the names of all officers and members of the regular army who have deserted or resigned between the first of December, 1860, and December, 1863. Adopted.

Mr. Foote offered a similar resolution relative to the navy.

The pending question being on the postponement of the resolution of Mr. Sumner, embodying the proposed rule of the Senate, Mr. Bayard continued the discussion and favored the postponement of action.

Mr. Sumner said it was difficult to resist the application urged with so much pertinac-ity by the gentleman from Delaware, yet that gentleman enjoyed the most ample opportu-nity of considering it, and it was due to the Senator that it should be settled without delay, and, before the holidays, he should deem it proper to press it to a vote. On motion of Mr. Wilson, the bill for increased bounty and pay of volunteers was taken up. The amendment allowing soldiers to reinlist in other branches of the service coming first under consideration, the amendment was agreed to. Mr. Wilson said that in October last, when Mr. Wilson said that in October last, when it was found the draft for 300,000 men was incapable to meet the wants of the War Department, a bounty of $400 to veterans and $300 to others was offered, and this bill was designed to carry out the pledge made. Nine million dollars had then been received from commutation. This was now augmented to

Mr. Wilson acknowledged the necessity of exercising great care with regard to the depletion of the Treasury, and to keeping the credit of the Government intact. It had always been thought more difficult to obtain more money than men. He wanted the currency of the country to be sound and her credit good; yet we must keep our pledges made to enlisted men. They were numerous, not only in the Northern States, but in the Southwest. East Tennessee had recruited 3,500 men. Arkansas had raised a substantial addition to our forces. Such recruits should be dealt with according to promise. He was in favor of the commues proposed.

Mr. Harris did not favor the amendment. As it stood to-night, it would stop all recruit-ing after the 5th of January.

Mr. Lane, of Indiana, said we could not fill our armies with conscripts alone. There were 3,000,000 men subject to draft at this time, and of this number, on the basis of the receipts of the last draft, but 426,000 could be brought into the field, if the entire enrolment were taken, and out of this number from 20,000 to 30,000 would be deserters. Indiana had more than filled her quots, and could be deserted on in any circumstance to family depended on in any circumstance to furnish her full share without resort to the draft. Mr. Collamer moved to strike out the words January fifth and insert till the next draft, not later than February 1st. Lost.

On motion of Mr. Dawes, of Massachusetts, the documentary evidence in the various con-tested elections was ordered to be printed. Mr. Blair, of Missouri, from the Committee on Ways and Means, introduced a bill appropriating over $70,000 to carry into effect the act of March, 1862, for pay, bounty, and pensions to officers and men actually employed in war in the Department of Missouri.

Mr. Cox, of Ohio, objected to the consideraion of the bill at this time. Mr. King, of Missouri, advocated the passage of the bill. sage of the bill.

Further debate ensued, when the bill was made the special order for to-day at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Schenck, of Ohio, from the Military Committee, reported a bill repealing the 3d and 10th sections of the enrolment acts othat the two classes of persons who may be drafted shall be consolidated into one, this to take efect on or after its passage.

Objections being made to the consideration of Mr. Schenck's report at this time, he temporarily withdrew it.

Mr. Yeaman, of Kentucky, offered a series of resolutions, setting forth that a conspiracy of persons exists, assuming to be the govern ment of certain States, for the purpose of withdrawing those States from the Federal Union, but this does not extinguish the politi-cal franchise of such States, and that the people thereof can at any time resume their civil government on the only condition that their constitution shall be republican, that with those who are loyal and qualified by the election it lays to resume their State governments, and that this is a sufficient evidence of mr. Schenck moved a suspension of the rules in order to take up the report and act upon the bill to consolidate the two classes in the enrolment. The vote was yeas 63, nays 60. So the rules were not suspended, a twohird vote being necessary.

The House refused to accede to the demand for the previous question, when,
On motion of Mr. Lovejoy, the reasons were referred to a select committee.

Mr. Olding, of Ohio, offered a resolution for the appointment of a select committee of nine ider and report on the subject of a na-

A motion was made to lay the resolution on Mr. Ashley, of Ohio, introduced a bill, which was referred, providing a Provisional Government in the military districts of the insurgent States, and authorizing the loyal citizens thereof to organize a government, republican in form, and for other purposes. Mr. Asbley offered a resolution granting the use of this hall for a public meeting of the Freedmen's Relief Association.

Mr. Miller, of Pennsylvania, offered a resoution respectfully requesting the President to nstruct those having charge of the exchange of prisoners to propose to the so-called South-ern Confederacy to exchange white man for white man, leaving all other questions, including that relating to negro prisoners, to be isposed of hereafter, so that the suffering white men may be restored to the service of the Government, their friends, and firesides. The House refused—73 against 85—to lay The House refused—'3 against 85—to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, offered a substitute for the above, declaring that the House approve of the measures taken by the administration for the exchange of prisoners now held by the enemy in Southern prisons, and recommending that the same course be pur-sued for the fair and just exchange of all our soldiers now held by the rebels. The question was taken, and Mr. Wash-burne's substitute was adopted—87 against 63. NEW YORK, Dec. 21. A letter from Bealton Station, Virginia, to the Philadelphia Inquirer says: I have heard a report, said to be brought in by a contraband who recently left Gordonsville and succeeded in escaping to our lines, that a day or two before he left a Louisiana regiment and also the Jeff Davis Legion had arrived there, and that the rebel authorities are sending to Gen. Lee all the troops they can collect from various points, with the intention of making an attack on the Army of the Potomac.

The Philadelphia North American of this morning says: The ram Atlanta, refitted and put in order, is likely to be only less formida-ble than the Ironsides. The talk at the navyyards is that she will go down to Charleston to take the place of the lost Weehawken. The Atlanta is more like the Ironsides than any of the Monitors. A Havanna letter says Gen. Comonfort was murdered by his own countrymen—that the new Maximillian regency was virtually dis-solved by action of the Archishop of Mexico City. The Archbishop insisted on a restora-tion of the Church property which had been confiscated and distributed by Jaquarez. This was refused, and His Grace excommunicated every Frenchman and Mexican who opposed him, from Gen. Bazaine and Gen. Almonte down to drummer boys of the liberating army. The Cathedral doors being closed General Negre surrounded the building with ,000 French soldiers, and, planting his cannon at the door, demanded admission within a certain time. The Archbishop admitted the pious belligerents at once, and gave them Episcopal benediction.

It is reported here that Magruder is at Columbus, on the Colorado, with a large force, and that if the Federal army enters the interior its progress will be disputed. It will not, in my opinion, leave navigable waters very soon. Magruder was fully apprised of the intended attack on the Rio Grande, and rather invited it, with the hope of embroiling the United States with France.

A special to the Democrat from Fort Smith, Arkansas, December 20, says that an attack was made on the outposts of Fort Gibson, on the 17th, by Standwaite, with a force stated He was repulsed and fell back, taking part of his force across the Arkansas, below Fort Gibson, moving northeast. The 3d Wisconsin cavalry has just returned rom a successful reconnoissance They went within 15 miles of Red River, but finding the enemy had changed position since the last advices, they were unable to proceed urther. Their return was a constant skir-nish for over a hundred miles, strong bodies of the enemy being posted at all the cross roads to intercept them. They cut their way through in a number of places, and avoided other posts by taking blind and circuitous mountain passes. Their loss was trifling. Among the prisoners captured is the notorious Handy Lane, who boasts of having kill-ed over a hundred Union citizens with his Information has been received that twothird's of Kirby Smith's force are preparing to attack Little Rock, while the balance, anticipating that McNeil's force will be drawn away to reinforce Steele, are to fall on Fort Smith.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. The Government, it is said, received information of a rebel plot to rescue the rebe prisoners now at Point Lookout, under charge of Gen. Marston, of a Newhampshire brigade It is said, however, that the prisoners deny all knowledge of the affair, and many of them, who are very comfortably quartered, would not join in an attempt, even if an armed force of rebels made their appearance. Precautionary measures, however, have been taken at the Point, and if any such attempt was undertaken, the attacking party would surely receive a warm reception. CAIRO, Dec. 21. fore his departure to the field. An earlier of the war will still leave the recruit entitled to his full bounty.

Details from every company in the service will act as Recruiting Agents in the various sub-districts. Entire harmony of action exists between Maj. Sidell, U. S. A., Acting Assistant Provost Marshal-General for Kontucky at Louisville, his District Provost-Marshals, and the State authorities.

I behooves every man in Kentucky to labor for the accomplishment of this common good, to assist in ensisting recruits sufficient to obviate the draft, which is sure to follow if we are delinquent in this duty. Let every one lend himself to this patriotic purpose—let every neighborhood respond in the most triumphant manner to this great moral and physical obligation. Let every County determine to be among the first to satisfy this demand of justice, equality, and law. Those noble districts which have made records so proud as to exempt them from the requirements of this order may write their history in still brighter colors by continuing their contributions to our ranks. Let it be remembered, that, in some manner, our quota must be raised—that volunteers receive large bounties and drafted men receive none—that for every new recruit returned to the Prevost Marshal $15, and for every one who has served nine months $25, will be paid the party producing him; that to the 5th of January, 1864, only, is given the privilege of filling our quota by voluntary enlistments, and that then will follow an inexorable draft, bearing in its train neither bounty nor honor.

By order of the Governor: By order of the Governor: JOHN BOYLE,

CATARRH! CATARRH! DR. SEELYE'S LIQUID CATARRH REMEDY—a sure cure for OATARRH or OOLD IN THE HEAD. It is easier to cure Gatarrh than Censumption, and by curing the first we prevent the Censumption, and by curing the first we prevent the latter.

The symptoms of Catarrh, as they generally appear, are at first very slight. Persons find they have a cold, and find that they have frequent attacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition the nose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, afterward becoming thick and adhesive. As the disease becomes chronic the discharges are increased in quantity and changes in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are either got rid of by blowing the nose, or else they fall into the throat and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice is thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place.

By the aid of the Liquid Catarrh Remedy all these symptoms can be effectually removed.

Price of the Catarrh Remedy $2-sufficient for use one month, with full and clear directions, sent by express. Soid by all Druggists. Address DR. D. H. SEELYE, old dly P. O. Box 4,351, Chicago, Ill.

Student, and a Young Married Lady, full of romanoe and thrilling interest. Young men who are troubled with weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are dizziness, pains, forgetfulness, sometimes a ringing in the ears, weak eyes, weakness of the back and lower extremities, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, with melancholy, may be cured by the author's NEW PABIS AND LONDON TREATMENT.
We have recently devoted much of our time in VIS. ory, with melancholy, may be cured by the author's NEW PARIS AND LONDON TREATMENT.

We have recently devoted much of our time in VISITING THE EUROPEAN HOSPITALS, availing curselves of the knowledge and researches of the most skilled Physicians and Surgeons of Europe and on the cot tinent-such men as ollVIALE, LENOIRE, RICARD, RRECHETEAU, ACTON, and OURLINGS, of the Fr ach and English Hospitals. Our tour extended through France, Italy, Germany, Holland, England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales, visiting in our route the principal hospitals in Paris, London, Rome, Venice Vienna, Dresden, Berlin, &c. We have been amply repaid by the additional knowledge we have acquired in the treatment of various diseases to which we have directed our stendion. Those who place themselves under our care will, whether male or female, now have the full benefit of the many NEW AND EFFICIENT REMEDIES which we are enabled to introduce into our practice, and the public may rest assured of the same zeal, assiduty, SECRECY, and attention being paid to their cases which has so successfully distinguished us heretofore as a Physician in our FECULLIAR department of professional practice.
